

Thieves steal boat from the harbour

A BOAT has been stolen from Lyme Regis harbour in what is thought to be the first theft of its kind ever to happen in the town.

The four-metre, engine powered Orkney Spinner boat, named "Matisse", is thought to have gone missing between Sunday, August 28th and Saturday, September 3rd. It was officially reported missing by owner Pete Hackett on Sunday.

By Francesca Evans

Mr Hackett has owned "Matisse", which would cost about £2,000 to replace, for seven years. He used the boat for mackerel fishing and taking his friends and family to sea.

He said: "It's disappointing and I'm obviously upset. It's a shame for Lyme Regis and I know it's not very good publicity for the town but I think people should know, and perhaps someone saw it happening."

Thefts of items on boats have previously taken place but harbourmaster Graeme Forshaw said this was the first time he had heard of an actual boat being stolen from the harbour.

He said: "It's a very rare occurrence, very unfortunate and we feel for Mr Hackett."

Mr Forshaw had recently taken photos of two men acting suspiciously around the harbour. They had been camping on the beach and were seen walking in the harbour at low tide looking in boats, including Mr Hackett's.

The harbourmaster said he did not know if these were the same people who had stolen the boat but had passed the photos on to the police. The harbour CCTV is also being looked at but Mr Forshaw said this was a "long task".

He added: "Someone would need a lot of resources and be very determined to steal a boat. Ultimately, I think it will turn up somewhere as the marine police have been informed and they will be looking out for it."

CEO of Clipper Teas, and motorcycle enthusiast, Tony Revill-Johnson speaks to the View from this week about why he thinks we are a nation of tea lovers and why he would like to have dinner with Martin Luther King.

A Geordie by birth, Tony moved around the country as a child and lived in the South East of England before moving to Cornwall five years ago.

Tony now lives in Launceston with his wife and their two dogs and travels to Beaminster most days, often staying overnight at the Bridge House Hotel.

With a background in the food industry Tony became a part of Clipper when the company was bought from its original owners Mike and Lorraine Brehme in 2007.

This week Clipper were celebrating winning ten Taste of the West Awards for their range of teas.

WHAT first attracted you to the South West?

It's a fabulous place to live and it's a great place to work. We used to live in the south east and I remember when we moved down here I got letter from my health insurance company saying our premiums had gone down by 40 per cent, which I think is a tribute to the lifestyle.

TEA or coffee?

Both, I have to say that when I wake up in the morning I can't do without a good cup of strong coffee but it's quickly onto a good cup of tea. It depends on the time of day as well. I try to drink the hot chocolate a little bit less because I have a bit of a sweet tooth, but it's great in the evening absolutely.

WHAT is your favourite brew?

My favourite brew would have to be our fairtrade everyday tea, it's just such a lovely bright strong cup of tea. It comes from some of our best fairtrade estates in Africa and India so for me it's the everyday tea served with milk, no sugars and a biscuit please.

WHY do you think we are a nation of tea lovers?

It is part of the national psyche and it's our best-loved drink I think. It's comforting and refreshing, those are the qualities that people look for in tea and what makes Clipper special is its really good quality and value for money and we do the right thing by operating a fairtrade company. People trust us to be natural fair and delicious.

WHAT are the benefits of drinking tea?

Rehydration, principally, but with things like green tea, which is becoming more and more popular, you are getting those additional health benefits from the antioxidants.

There is such a wide range of tea now from herbal infusions through to standard teas, speciality teas and earl greys. It offers refreshment, taste and something for everybody, it's not just about a standard black cup of tea anymore.

WHY do you love being a part of Clipper?

Living and working in Beaminster you have a really genuine group of people who are thrilled to bits to work for Clipper, not just because it's a successful company but because we do the right thing ethically with all our suppliers. We've got a great area, with great people and we're very engaged with the local community and it just makes it a lot of fun. It's much less like a job and more of a lifestyle choice almost, it's just a fun thing to do.

Councils fund arts review

OVER the next few weeks a review of the arts in Lyme Regis is taking place to find out about the activities and organisations within the town, what resources are available to them, what they need and their future plans.

The Lyme Regis Arts Infrastructure Review has been jointly commissioned by Lyme Regis Town Council and West Dorset District Council, at a cost of £5,600, and is intended to give the authorities a clear shared direction on supporting the arts in the town over the next five years.

Independent consultant Jo Morland will be contacting arts organisations to ask them for information on their membership, activities, needs and their medium and long term plans. She will also be gathering information on the town's community and church halls and other facilities available for the arts, and linking this with wider strategic planning for Lyme Regis through LymeForward and Lyme Regis Development Trust.

For benefit of residents

This detailed audit will provide sound factual foundations to base a range of options for taking forward the arts and how best to use resources, to benefit residents who take part in arts activities, people who attend performances and exhibitions and visitors to the town. West Dorset District Council Leader Robert Gould said: "The district council is doing all it can to support arts facilities for residents and visitors to West Dorset."

"While many councils across the country are making cuts, the district council is one of the very few who are not cutting services and still supporting community initiatives while also freezing council tax."

If you would like more information about the review or if you run a group or organisation that hasn't been contacted yet please contact West Dorset District Council cultural development officer, Jude Allen, on 01305 252261.

Open invitation to Queen's Jubilee public meeting

REPRESENTATIVES of all local organisations are invited to a public meeting to discuss how the town can celebrate the Queen's Diamond Jubilee in June 2012.

The meeting is being held at the Woodmead Halls on Monday, September 12th, starting at 7.30pm.

The meeting will be chaired by View from Lyme Regis editor Philip Evans, at the invitation of the Mayor, Councillor Sally Holman.

Councillor Holman said: "I hope as many organisations as possible will be present so we can discuss an appropriate way to celebrate this great occasion."

Towns and villages across the county are being encouraged to organise special events by the Lord Lieutenant's Office.

Top sailors arriving

YACHTSMEN from all over the country will descend on Lyme Regis for the 40th anniversary of the 70 Phantoms national championship.

Competitors will arrive on Thursday and be treated to a curry buffet in the evening with racing taking place throughout Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Among those taking part are current national champion Nick Craig as well as a number of former champions.

The Phantoms' annual general meeting will also be held on Friday evening.

Amnesty hosting freedom debate

TWO distinguished West Dorset residents will lead a public discussion at the Woodmead Halls in Lyme Regis on a challenging contemporary issue, titled "Public security and private freedom: can we have both?"

Local MP and Minister of State at the Cabinet Office, Oliver Letwin, and Clive Stafford Smith OBE, legal director of 'Reprieve', will bring their distinct experiences and knowledge to bear on this issue, starting at 7.15pm on Friday, September 16th.

'Reprieve' is a legal charity opposed to the death penalty. Clive Stafford Smith has a track record of representing prisoners on death row in the USA and detainees in Guantanamo Bay (and finding time to play cricket for his local West Dorset team). Last year he enthralled and stimulated the sixth form at the Woodroffe School, and later enlivened the Heritage Coast U3A at a public meeting, so his return to Lyme is much looked forward to.

Oliver Letwin needs no introduction as constituency MP, but as a senior Cabinet Minister he is in the front line of the government's key dual responsibilities to protect the nation's citizens and to preserve their traditional liberties.

The evening will be a led discussion, encouraging contributions and questions from the audience. To make the most of this opportunity, the organisers will welcome advance notice of issues that audience members would like to address. These will not be given in raw form to the speakers, but a summary will be used as background briefing for them in the hope that as many relevant ideas as is practicable can be covered. Suggestions may be emailed to chris@caboothroyd.net no later than Wednesday, September 14th.

The evening is sponsored by the Lyme Regis Group of Amnesty International. Admission is free, parking is available, and the bar will be available from 6.45pm.

A GROUP of students who will be starting at the Woodroffe School in Lyme Regis this week attended an art summer school with teacher Alison Bowskill.

The 22 students had the opportunity to experience a variety of art and design activities, to develop their skills before starting at the Arts College status school.

The youngsters said it made them feel "more comfortable" about starting secondary school, helped them to make friends and taught them skills such as printing and making 3D models.

New chairman for Lyme Society

STEPHEN Wilkins has taken on the role of acting chairman of the Lyme Regis Society, following the resignation of long-standing chairman Bernard Spencer.

At the society's last committee meeting, no one felt they were able to take on the role of chairman permanently so it was decided to continue with an acting chairman who would only serve 12 months at a time. Mr Wilkins, who has served on the society as committee member for planning issues for several years, was appointed acting chairman for the period up until the 2012 annual general meeting.

The Lyme Regis Society aims to protect the natural and architectural beauty of the town and promote interest in its cultural and historical associations.

■ TEAM TORY: Robert Gould (WDDC leader) pictured with successful Conservative councillors, Jane Bremner, Ian Thomas, George Symonds and Daryl Turner, Lyme branch chairman Eric Tomlinson and his wife and West Dorset Conservative Association chairman David Crowhurst

Tories celebrate local election successes

LYME Regis Tories were in jubilant mood at a party held at the Ware House, home of Minnie Churchill, Deputy Lord Lieutenant of Dorset, and her partner, Simon Bird.

The event was organised as a belated celebration for the Conservatives' success in last May's local elections when they swept the board at district council level.

Among the successful councillors present were Lyme members Daryl Turner and George Symonds. They were joined by Jane Bremner, who won the Charmouth seat, and Ian Thomas, who won a seat on East Devon District Council for the Trinity Ward, which includes Uplyme.

In securing a 16-seat majority at West Dorset, Michael Robinson also won the Marshwood Vale seat and Gillian Summers, the district council chairman, being returned in the Chideock ward.

Special guests at the party were county councillor David Crowhurst, chairman of the West Dorset Conservative Association, and Councillor Robert Gould, leader of West Dorset District Council.

They were welcomed by Mr Eric Tomlinson, chairman of the Lyme Regis branch of the Conservative Association, who reminded the assembled party supporters that in 2010 they were able to cel-

By Philip Evans

brate the return to parliament of Oliver Letwin with an increased majority.

Now, in 2011, they were celebrating the election of 32 Conservative councillors to the district council with all seats in and around Lyme Regis occupied by Tories.

This meant that all four tiers of government locally (including the EU) were controlled by the Conservatives for the first time.

Fantastic job

The party was also addressed by Councillor Gould who praised the branch for doing "a fantastic job" in and around Lyme Regis during last May's elections to produce "such wonderful results".

He congratulated Daryl Turner and George Symonds for winning the two Lyme seats on the district council, as well as Jane Bremner's Charmouth victory, describing Councillor Turner as "the champion of Lyme Regis".

He told the gathering: "When I took over as leader of the district council we had a majority of just one but the problems of handling a bigger majority is much preferred, especially with such a high calibre of councillors who will take a key role in taking the district forward in all we want to achieve for West Dorset, which is very exciting."

Councillor Gould spoke of the difficult financial situation nationally and the resultant "huge squeeze" on local government spending.

West Dorset's budget had been cut by 25 per cent over the next two years.

He described this as "a terrific amount" but the council had been planning for the expected cuts with a package of measures to reduce costs without affecting front-line services.

Councillor Gould outlined the three main areas where savings were being achieved - £2 million by sharing services and senior officers with Weymouth and Portland Borough Council; the delivery of more efficient services which was saving £1 million; and savings which would come from the building of new offices in Dorchester.

Such measures would enable the district council to continue supporting services such as the Lyme Regis Museum.

Councillor Gould concluded: "There is a huge amount of work to do but this tremendous new team will be enthusiastically rising to this challenge."

In thanking Councillor Gould for his address, Mr Tomlinson commented: "In Robert Gould we have a strong pair of hands on the tiller."

Huge send off for town crier Phil

HUNDREDS of Lyme Regis residents turned out to wish town crier Phil Street good luck at his farewell party on Friday night.

The Woodmead Halls was packed with family, friends and those who have supported Mr Street during his 18 years as town crier - all who wanted to wish him well before he moved to the South of France to take up a new job.

Mr Street received many good luck cards and presents, including a tankard from the Lyme Regis and St George's Twinning Association, of which he was chairman, presented to him by the association's president, the Mayor, Councillor Sally Holman.

Local award-winning photographer, Richard Austin, also presented Mr

Street with a montage of photos taken of him during his time as town crier.

Mr Street thanked guests for coming in an emotional speech. He gave special mentions to his wife Dawn, children Luke and Amy, best friend and fellow fundraiser Mike Higgs, other local town criers and former Lyme Regis town crier, Richard Fox, who he said had been his "inspiration".

He left for France the next morning to look for accommodation.

Mr Street will be taking up a new job following his promotion at Westland Helicopters, based in Yeovil. His wife Dawn will join him next year after daughter Amy has finished her GCSEs.

Cricket field lit up for local boy Sam

THE King George V Playing Fields in Uplyme were lit up with 2,000 candles on Sunday evening to raise money for specialist cancer treatment for local teenager Sam Daubany-Nunn.

The spectacular event was organised by the Candles in the Cobb team and also marked the 150th anniversary of Uplyme and Lyme Regis Cricket Club.

In the afternoon, club members played cricket against a Candles on the Cobb XI ending in a draw as the game had to be stopped because of rain (see page 72 for report).

Local organisations also ran stalls, including the RNLI and East Devon Cats Protection. Entertainment included performances from Uplyme Morris Men and local band Delta Tango 7, and there was a barbecue and bar open all day.

Despite wet and windy conditions, the lighting of candles went ahead as planned in the evening. Candles, each bought for £2, lined the pitch boundary and were placed in circles around cricket field placings.

The Mayor, Councillor Sally Holman, lit the first candle with the help of organiser Mike Higgs, followed by cricket club members and sponsors of the event.

Mr Higgs said: "We were a bit worried because of the weather but it was a brilliant event, really enjoyable."

"Thanks to all our sponsors and to Fowlers Tool Hire of Bridport for loaning us the cherry picker for free so we could see the candles from above."

Week of walks at the museum

WALKS Week at Lyme Regis Museum is in full swing with more activities being held over the next few days.

Today (Wednesday) local boatman and historian, Ken Gollop, will lead a tour of the Cobb harbour and talk about fishermen, fossils and the French Lieutenant's Woman, meeting at the lifeboat station at 2.30pm.

Tomorrow (Thursday), boatbuilder Gail McGarva will lead a walk called "Boats and their Stories", starting at the Boat Building Academy in Monmouth Beach Car Park at 11am and visiting the harbour and gig shed.

On Saturday, September 10th, Richard Bull, an expert on past industries of Lyme, will show where stone was once quarried from the town's beaches and cliffs, meeting at the lifeboat station at 2pm.

Coffee morning for church flower festival

A COFFEE morning will be held tomorrow (Thursday) in aid of next year's flower festival at St Michael's Parish Church in Lyme Regis.

The coffee morning will be held from 10.30am to 12noon at the Inn Plaice, Pilot Boat Inn.

Following the success of the church's first flower festival in 2008, next year's event will be themed "Lyme Life" and organisers hope it will include displays depicting all aspects of community life.

Darwin talk tomorrow

CHARLES Darwin's life, influence and ideas will be the subject of an illustrated presentation at Woodmead Halls tomorrow (Thursday) at 2.30pm hosted by The Friends of Lyme Regis Philpot Museum.

The speaker is David Croman and the admission charge is £2 for members or £3 for visitors, including refreshments.

■ FUNDRAISING SISTERS: Jo and Kate Enright on the Lym Zim Link stall

THE Lym Zim Link charity raised £341 at their seafront stall in Lyme Regis last week.

The stall was held in the Marine Parade shelters on Friday and included lucky dips, tombolas and games, as well as local crafts for sale.

The money raised will go towards the Pedro Arruue

Organiser Jo Enright said: "It was a pleasing result and those who came seemed to enjoy the fun and spend well so may thanks to all."

Gig Club raise £1,000 for Sam

MEMBERS of Lyme Regis Gig Club rowed to West Bay and back to raise £1,000 for cancer sufferer Sam Daubney-Nunn.

Sam, 18, from Uplyme, has a very rare form of cancer and his family need to raise £70,000 for specialist treatment in Germany.

The Lyme crews, rowing "Rebel" and "Black Ven", were joined by members from Bridport Gig Club in their new wooden gig "Dagger", to make the passage of seven miles to West Bay on August 21st.

The outward rowers had the wind and sea behind them and took one hour 20 minutes, but the return leg was tougher and took just under two hours.

Chairman of Lyme Regis Gig Club, Marcus Dixon said: "It's amazing how many local organisations have rallied round to help raise funds to help Sam and we wanted to do our bit.

"I'd like to thank everyone who sponsored the row to West Bay and back, particularly Bridport Gig Rowing Club who joined us and helped raise money."

What a whopper!

THIS enormous cucumber was grown by Phil Curtis and Val Hawkins (pictured) in their garden in Kingsway, Lyme Regis.

The vegetable measured 18 inches long and weighed three pounds and 12 ounces.

Mr Curtis said he grows cucumbers every year and had had a particularly successful growing season, but had never seen one as big as this.

Mrs Hawkins added that "it was a shame" it didn't grow in time to enter in one of the local garden shows.

They decided to pickle half of it and use the rest for sandwiches and salads.

Grace says goodbye to Lyme lifeboat crew

LYME Regis lifeboat crew member, Grace Wadsworth, 19, was given the traditional farewell at the end of her final training session last week before going to university.

As she returned to the harbour aboard the "Pearl of Dorset", her crew mates waited to soak her with a hose pipe, flour and eggs.

Grace will temporarily leave the lifeboat crew later this month to study geology at the University of Portsmouth.

She first joined the volunteers at the lifeboat station aged just 14 as part of her Duke of Edinburgh Award Scheme. The teen later became Lyme's first female crew member, as well as Britain's youngest ever sea-going member when she turned 17, taking the title from schoolmate Ritchie Durrant, who turned 17 just two weeks before.

Grace, whose father, Tim, is also a crew member, will keep in touch with the lifeboat crew during university holidays.

Teresa passes Open University degree

A LYME Regis resident who was unsuccessful in her GCSEs has just achieved a great aspiration in passing her degree with the Open University.

Teresa Evemy has been finding time in her busy schedule to study for eight years and was recently awarded a 2:2 in exemplary history.

She said: "It is a great feeling. I have been dabbling in history, notably Greek and Roman, from primary school, and I'm now deliberating whether to go on and take a master's degree.

"The Open University is wonderful as it enables people to study their selected subjects at any time in life and at their own pace."

A former Woodroffe School pupil, Teresa, who lives in Summerhill Road, is now a personal assistant in Seaton.

She also plays an active role in the local community, as chairman of Lyme Regis Regatta and Carnival Committee and treasurer of Lyme Regis Football Club.

Children's top fundraising effort

THREE children who raised cash for the RNLI in Lyme Regis, only to have it stolen, have still managed to present the lifeboat crew with more than £400.

Alfie Ayling, 7, his sister Lily, 10, and friend Iris Penfold, 9, were heartbroken when the money they had raised painting and selling stones was stolen.

They have been collecting money for the lifeboat charity for four years during visits to Lyme Regis and have raised a total of some £500. But this year their decorated stones and honesty box were stolen from outside their holiday home.

Lily and Alfie, from Chichester, and Iris from London, decided they had to start from scratch after the theft.

They raised £423 and were invited to the lifeboat station to present the money to lifeboat operations manager, Grahame Forshaw.

Iris could not attend, but Mr Forshaw told Lily and Alfie: "You should be very proud of yourselves. You have set a marvellous example to others and we are very grateful for your efforts for the lifeboat charity, particularly following your disappointment when your first collection was stolen."

Alfie said: "We just love lifeboats. We were upset when the money was stolen, but we really wanted to start again. One person even gave us a £20 note."

Lily and Alfie's mum, Lesley Davis added: Everyone is very proud of the children. We like to support the RNLI every year – it is such a good cause."

■ OWLS and kestrels helped to raise £300 for the RNLI in Lyme Regis.

The birds, from the Hawkridge Birds of Prey Centre in Exmouth, appeared before a capacity audience at Uplyme Village Hall during Lifeboat Week, organised by Uplyme and Lyme Regis Horticultural Society.

Rotary Club donates to Lyme's young sailors

THE Rotary Club of Lyme Regis has donated £250 to Lyme Regis Sailing Club's youth section to fund youth trophies.

Rotarian and keen member of the sailing club, Peter Fortnam said: "One of Rotary's aims is to help and encourage youth organisations. Never has there been a more interesting time for south coast sailing clubs, with the Olympics taking place in Weymouth next year.

"It's a great time to get involved in sailing. We hope these trophies will help in some small way to encourage sailing competition amongst the youth of Lyme Regis, perhaps in time to help produce a Lyme Olympian!"

Real asset to the town

I'M writing this column sat inside the central pavilion of the regenerated Marine Parade shelters on Sunday morning.

It's a glorious early autumn Lyme day and as I look out over the bay, the sun glistening on the water, there are a few sailing boats bobbing on the near horizon, one of the gigs is gliding gently by and a couple of trawlers and yachts are moored just outside the harbour.

The strains of a familiar march can be heard from the new performance area where Chard Concert Brass will be entertaining all day.

The season's over but there are still a few visitors strolling along the prom, making the most of what's left of the sun.

Suddenly, life seems very agreeable. Surely, this is Lyme's most pleasant time of the year?

I'm joined on the boat-shaped front desk by daughter Francesca, who is also a shelter volunteer and who has been looking after this page with her ever-popular "Summertime in

by Philip Evans

Lyme" column.

Despite the fact that most of the visitors have gone home, yesterday was a record day in the central pavilion, with over 300 visitors. The role of the central pavilion is to act as an information interpretation area with the intent of saying to visitors "this is what's happening in Lyme, now go out and enjoy it".

But despite all the flatscreen, touchscreen and projection high-tech gadgets, the most frequent question is "where's the toilets?"

The main job of the volunteers (and looking at the rota behind the desk there's about 20 of us in all) is to act as unofficial ambassadors for Lyme, pointing people in the right direction, answering their queries where possible, and then giving an assessment of people's reaction to the new shelters and future possible uses.

All this feedback will go to a meeting of the SURF users' group at the end of this month for the town council to shape a strategy for the future.

There is no doubt that the shelters are a huge hit with the holidaymakers, especially regular visitors to the town who had become used to seeing the former structure deteriorate over the years. "Unloved" as someone put it to me this morning.

It always amazes me how few locals you see on the seafront but I suppose we all take it for granted. Very few locals pop into the central pavilion and one or two of the more grumpy ones are a bit negative about the shelters, especially the £1.3m cost. Perhaps an afternoon's volunteering might give them a different perspective about the potential of the shelters as a long term tourist attraction.

One regular visitor to Lyme has just walked into the pavilion, praising the design and saying he thinks it will be "award-winning architecture". Many others have been complimentary as well.

As with all developments of this size, there are a few niggling matters that need addressing by the council but the overwhelming view of those who visit the pavilion is that the shelters are a great asset to our town.

It's back to the old routine after a lovely summer

A SURE sign of advancing years is the alacrity of the passing months and years.

This summer has certainly flown by and it only seems yesterday that I handed over this page for Francesca's "Summertime in Lyme" column, which has proved as popular as ever.

For the Evans family it's been one of the best summers ever, mainly because our eldest daughter Zoe, who is planning to move permanently to Australia, has been home for the summer months to renew her visa.

It's encouraged us to make the most of every opportunity to have a good time as a family and started with an unexpected invitation to a Buckingham Palace garden party for all us, an unforgettable experience.

We've also joined in as many of the summer events as possible - jazz festival, lifeboat week and the regatta and carnival. We entered our vans and Smart cars in the carnival procession and gave away 1,000 balloons to the kids around the route, an exertion which nearly killed me!

Sadly, another memorable summer is over and Zoe will soon be returning to Oz. So it's back to the old routine of writing the "Lyme Matters" column and getting to grips with some of the more prickly problems.

I'm going to kick off next week with an assessment of the first six months of our new-look council following the May polls in which six new members were elected and one other major issue which is having a major impact on the quality of life in Lyme.

EVENT OF THE WEEK...

THIS had to be Phil Street's leaving party at the Woodmead Halls on Friday evening.

The town is still reeling from the news that our town crier and number one ambassador is leaving Lyme shortly to take up a new job in the aviation industry in Southern France.

Lyme Regis without Phil Street? Surely not?

One tweeter said this week: "Phil Street is the glue that holds Lyme together."

The affection in which Phil, wife Dawn and his family are held was amply demonstrated at Friday's farewell bash attended by well over 200 people representing all walks of life in Lyme.

Phil was so much more than just a town crier. He has been one of Lyme's most recognisable and popular characters over the years, an ever-present face at every major function held in Lyme over nearly two decades. As well as his commitment to the ancient art of town crying, winning numerous awards along the way, Phil has also been a champion fundraiser with his great pal Mike Higgs for numerous good causes, the most high profile of which has been the spectacular Candles On The Cobb events.

Leaving Lyme is going to be a big wrench for Phil who must have found the last couple of weeks, since his announcement, extremely emotional. Friday's party was no exception.

Whilst regretting his decision to leave Lyme, everyone in the town appreciates that he is making the right decision for his own career and his family's future.

And as Phil told those who attended his farewell party - he'll be back.

Choir looking for new members

THE Lyme Voices Choir will start a new season tomorrow (Thursday) and is looking for new members.

The Lyme Regis-based choir is open to all singers of all levels of experience. There is no audition to join and the group doesn't use sheet music - everything is taught by sound so there is no need to be able to read music.

Lyme Voices have been meeting and singing under the musical direction of Pete Linnett for five years. Highlights from the last year's season include singing at the Fossil Festival in May and at the opening of the new Marine Parade shelters in July.

Mr Linnett said: "This season we're looking forward to the Dorset Community Choirs Festival in November. Everyone is very welcome to join us. You don't even have to live in Lyme Regis."

The new season's first session will be held tomorrow at the Bethany Chapel in Coombe Street from 7.30pm. For more information contact Mr Linnett at petelinnett@hotmail.com or phone 01297 445078.

■ FINAL FAREWELL: John Seabrook conducts the Early Music Group for the last time during the summer

Woodroffe teacher plays final concerts with school music group

WOODROFFE School teacher, John Seabrook, made his final appearances with the Early Music Group this summer, before retiring.

The school music group performed pieces from the Middle Ages, Tudor times, 18th century and folk tradition at three historic Dorset settings over the summer - Portland Castle, Catherine's Chapel in Abbotsbury and the St Nicholas Parish Church of Abbotsbury.

Current members were joined by former members of the group for the special occasions, some of which have continued their interest in music at university.

The group has been led for over 20 years by the school's history teacher, Mr Seabrook, who is now retiring.

He said: "We are very grateful to English Heritage, and to the Reverend Whittock at St Nicholas Church in Abbotsbury for the opportunity, and to our audiences for their support. Students enthused about the wonderful acoustics in all three locations. It was a rewarding way to end a busy year for the group."

Corporate life to life by the sea

IN a series of articles running up to Lyme Regis ArtsFest (September 17th to 25th), Anthea Simmons discovers the fascinating back stories behind some of the artists taking part.

This week she meets PAM ALLSOP, whose evocative mixed media paintings will be on display in Rummage, Serendip Bookshop and Lal Quilla Indian Restaurant during the festival.

■ WHAT is the history of your involvement in the arts? I had done watercolour and drawing classes while working in London years ago. However, when I moved to Lyme in 2005 I had more time to devote to art. I lived in a chalet overlooking the bay. How could I not be inspired? Those fantastic dawn skies, the light playing on the sea - I was overwhelmed by the compulsion to paint.

I painted solidly for days, dreadful pieces! I would cringe to see them now but I know it was all part of the process. I had to go through that to get to where I am now and it never stops, you keep moving on and developing. Art is very much about changing and growing. I work very early in the morning because that is when I feel my creative energies are at their peak and I'm not hindered by the distractions of daily life.

I joined a number of classes to explore different techniques, including Kat Swann's life classes in Seaton. I also worked with Linda Whiteman and Lynda White and had mentoring with Christine Allison, which was invaluable when I received a commission to provide images for a book, "Symptom as Symbol: A Language of the Transpersonal". I was excited, flattered and, I admit, scared. The 14 pieces are the result of working with mixed media and experimenting with paper, paint and tissue until the finished pictures emerged as if by some alchemic process. It was challenging but fun.

■ WHY Lyme and what did you do before you came here?

I went to the USA in the 60s and lived in New York and California, only returning to the UK as my father was very ill. I met my husband, got married and worked in personnel in Esso Petroleum and then Exxon's head office in London. I then became a UKCP registered transpersonal psychotherapist and later qualified as a deep memory process therapist. I also developed an interest in life coaching. I found that my skills were very much in demand in the business world, where people began to sense that there was something fundamental missing from their lives, which, in material terms, were about as good as it got. But it wasn't all about the corporate world. I also ran workshops for unemployed people in Hackney.

And why Lyme? I went to swim with dolphins in Hawaii and that triggered a real compulsion to be by the sea. I had only been to Lyme once before but I just could not get it out of my head. I knew I had to come here. My London friends were flabbergasted! Why leave London where I had a thriving private practice? I just knew it was right for me and I am so happy here. It is such a special place with tremendous creative energy.

■ WHAT are your sources of inspiration?

I am inspired by colour and light. That's why I love the Impressionists so much. I have loved them since I was a child. When I started my own work I was very much inspired by Mike Bernard who mixes collage and paint so wonderfully. I love Kurt Jackson's work - the colours and the energy. Similarly, Stuart Edmondson, a Devon artist who paints outdoors and incorporates whatever the weather throws at him. I love work with a sense of mystery, something to be discovered by the viewer and these artists go way beyond the purely representational.

■ IF you could own any work of art and spend a weekend in any gallery, what would you choose?

■ PAM Allsop with her work

I'd love to own Monet's "Water Lilies". That painting moves me deeply. And I'd love to spend a weekend in his garden at Giverny in spring.

■ HOW long have you been involved in ArtsFest and how would you like to see the event develop?

I've been involved for four years. It's wonderful that there is an event which involves pretty much everyone in Lyme.

I would like to see more young artists involved and it really would be great to have a show all along the railings on the seafront, like the Sunday morning shows round Hyde Park and Bayswater Road.

■ WHAT are you looking forward to at this year's event?

I know everyone says it, but the buzz around town is great and I love it! Beyond that, I am determined to get around the open studios. The variety of work is so exciting and inspiring. I am really looking forward to hearing SaxSation on Sunday 18th. I met Carolyn Fry through swimming! When I heard that they just got together and played in a field, I knew we had to have them here at ArtsFest! What a fantastic group of women!

I'll also be going to Hugh Dunford-Wood's film evening and doing Christine's dawn sketching again on Saturday 24th. I thoroughly enjoyed it last year. I will also be sure to go and hear the organist in St Michael's playing that fabulous organ.

Arts community comes together in annual festival

THE vibrant arts community of Lyme Regis is joining together this year's ArtsFest - an annual celebration of local talent - being held from Saturday, September 17th to Sunday, September 25th.

ArtsFest director, Councillor Sally Holman, said: "We are an established, independent festival with a limited budget, but ArtsFest has a reputation for inclusivity, quality and for encouraging visitors to experience creative processes first hand."

"Each year features new events to add to the established exhibitions, open studios and art trail. This year, we are pleased that Axminster Artisans are joining our opening day with a fair at Woodmead Halls. Professional artists and crafters from the local area will be offering a wide range of supervised arts and craft activities for children of all ages."

The festival will also show off Lyme's new Organ School and the Skrabl organ at St Michael's Parish Church. ArtsFest visitors will be able to find out about the school and the high level of tuition it offers by visiting the church from 11am to 11:45am between September 19th and 23rd.

The Bridgend Male Voice Choir will also be performing in the church at 3pm on Sunday 18th (tickets available from the Tourist Information Office or on the door).

Lyme Regis Rotary Club has also got involved by sponsoring a children's poetry competition. Entries from this will be on show at "WordsFest" at the Marine Theatre on Friday 23rd.

Councillor Holman added: "This year we are using a new venue, the regenerated Marine Parade shelters. We will have a manned information point there, as well as music, busking, writing and photography workshops, and demonstrations of three very different printing techniques by local artists."

For more information, pick up a free brochure from local outlets or visit the website www.lymeregisartsfest.com

Chris Rudge Renewable Power Systems

CHRIS Rudge Renewable Power have expanded their range of green generation products to keep up with the ever increasing demands of their customers. As well as keeping Sharp, Sanyo, Kyocera and Sovello Solar PV modules as current stock at the Seaton offices, they have now expanded into the Solar Thermal area, offering packages for people looking for both technologies to be installed together.

New lower Solar PV installation costs for 2011 have proved to be popular, especially as this is last year the Feed in Tariff (FIT) will be at the current higher rate. From next April, the FIT will be going down by 7% a year for new installations. Anyone having an installation this year will benefit from the current index linked payment for the next 24 years.

Solar PV systems can now be fully installed from around £6200 for a 1.3kWp system up to £12,500 for a 3.7kWp.

Chris Rudge Renewable Power also specialise in self contained 'off grid' battery systems for anyone who do not have a mains grid connection. These systems are tailor made for each installation, from a remote shed to a complete house or business. For any electrical requirements you may have, call Chris Rudge Renewable Power on 01297 306114 or go to the website at www.chrisrudge.co.uk

Malabar Trading

▲ Suzani cushions from Uzbekistan

AS summer draws to a close our thoughts turn to autumnal hues and warm colours as in these hand embroidered Suzani cushions from Uzbekistan. Uzbekistan has a rich history of textile production illustrated in the hand embroidered cushions and larger panels used as wall hangings and in handwoven ikat silk. The ikat silk has been made into beautiful cushion covers for the shop. Many other products illustrate the autumnal palette, for example, the wonderful handwoven Turkish kilims, the woollen Kashmiri throws and many of the block-printed bedspreads.

During the coming months there will be many new and exciting products arriving, some of which have been in production for the last few months. There will be cotton woven Indian dhurries as well as new quilts, and a new range of Japanese ceramics, and also warm woollen shawls and scarves for the cooler weather.

Malabar Trading is celebrating 10 years of trading and would like to thank all of the customers who have made this possible.

Don't put off having that beautiful new kitchen

Times are tough but that doesn't mean you have to put off having that beautiful new kitchen you've been promising yourself. A kitchen facelift could be the answer.

By replacing the doors, drawers, and if chosen new worktops, appliances and accessories such as plinths, cornice and pelmet a completely new kitchen can be achieved.

Refurbishing your kitchen, rather than replacing it, is a much more cost-effective option. You get the kitchen of your dreams for a fraction of the price. But counting the pennies doesn't mean you have to compromise on quality. Price is important but it's not the only factor, good service and quality products still count.

Whether it's a simple door swap, a more extensive facelift or a complete replacement kitchen, Dream Doors offers the same personal local service, backed up by a national brand, and delivering a top quality product.

We offer a FREE, NO OBLIGATION home visit to survey your kitchen, visit our showroom at 5 Damers Road, Dorchester or call 01305 268003 today.

Internationally renowned Fairey Band come to Beaminster

THE INTERNATIONALLY renowned Fairey Geneva Band will perform in Beaminster next week - fresh from competing in the British Open Championships.

The band will make their annual visit to the town for the 32nd consecutive year before heading off to compete in the English National championships next month, where they hope to retain their title.

The Stockport based band have been visiting Beaminster since 1979 playing a varied programme of music to suit everyone.

Performances of music from the Pirates of the Caribbean movies will be on this year's playlist along with Berlioz's Le Carnaval Romain.

Founded in 1937, The Fairey Aviation Band, as it was called then, achieved many musical successes under the direction of the late Harry Mortimer CBE, who was their musical director for 33 years.

The band have been crowned British Open Champions 16 times, National Champions eight times, Granada Band of the year twice and are past winners of the BBC Best of Brass award.

The Fairey Band have appeared regularly on TV and radio over the years and received wide public recognition following the Acid Brass project, where they combined with Turner-Prize-winning artist Jeremy Deller to perform and record classic acid dance athenas such as 808 State's pacific and KLF's what time is love.

The band's biggest success was in 1993 when they claimed the treble, winning the National and British Open titles and the European Crown.

The band will be performing at St Mary's Church, Beaminster on Sunday, September 18th at 2.30pm.

Tickets are £10 and are available from Symonds and Sampson estate agents, Beaminster or on 01308 862493. Proceeds from the concert will go towards the Beaminster Royal British Legion. Organisers wished to thank all of the sponsors who make the event possible each year.

Whitetop Mountaineers to play two Dorset dates Stompin' Dave brings the American duo to Dorchester and Lyme Regis STOMPIN' Dave brings more great music to music to Dorset, this month as he presents The Whitetop Mountaineers from Virginia, USA at Dorchester Art Centre on Friday, September 23rd, and The Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis, Tuesday, September 20th.

The Whitetop Mountaineers is made up of the young duo, Martha Spencer and Jackson Cunningham. They both live in Whitetop, Virginia. Their shows feature old time country duet singing, up-tempo old instrumentals as well as high energy Appalachian dancing. Jackson and Martha have played concerts, festivals, workshops, and dances throughout the United States, UK, Ireland and Australia including Merlefest, Smithsonian Folklife Festival, and The National Folk Festival. Their shows feature old time country duet singing, up-tempo old time fiddle, clawhammer banjo, bluegrass mandolin and guitar instrumentals as well as high energy Appalachian dancing.

Martha Spencer has won competitions on banjo, fiddle, and vocals, she grew up on Whitetop Mountain in a musical family; her uncle Albert Hash was a legendary fiddler and instrument maker that gained widespread attention for his music and craft. He had a great impact on old time music and taught countless musicians and luthiers. Her parents, Thornton Spencer and Emily Spencer, are the leaders of the Whitetop Mountain Band and are well known and respected musicians and teachers of old time music. Her great-grandfather, Bud Spencer, won many big dance competitions such as the Whitetop Folk Festival in the 1930s.

Jackson grew up in southern Oregon also in a musical family. Since moving to Virginia, he has drawn much attention for his powerful traditional playing and high lonesome singing. He plays mandolin, harmonica, clawhammer banjo as well as singing lead and harmony parts.

Support comes from local favourite, Bridport's own banjo and fiddle whiz Stompin' Dave who is organising and promoting a short tour for the Whitetop Mountaineers across Devon and Dorset. Dave says "It's really exciting to be promoting and appearing with touring performers from the USA for the first time, the concerts I've arranged with the Whitetop Mountaineers are sure to be very special events. It's a great pleasure to be supporting travelling, up and coming traditional musicians who come from an area whose music has inspired me so much personally."

Advance tickets for The Dorchester Arts Centre are £12, on the door £15. Available from Dorchester Arts Centre box office (01305) 266926 or online from www.dorchesterarts.org.uk

Advance tickets Marine Theatre are £10 (conc £8), on the door £12. Available from Lyme Regis TIC, 01297

WHITETOP MOUNTAINEERS | Martha Spencer and Jackson Cunningham

Former West Dorset MP to appear on BBC2 programme

MOST people under the age of 80 take their views of the LDV (Local Defence Volunteers), otherwise known as the Home Guard from the antics seen through the ever popular TV programme "Dad's Army".

Former West Dorset MP Sir James Spicer believes the reality is totally different.

He said: "Once rifles arrived (mostly from the USA), I am sure that if Hitler had invaded in 1940, we would have used them to good effect."

"Why do I say that? Because in 1940, at the age of 14 - adjusted to 16 - I served in a commando platoon of the Home Guard just outside London. I was the youngest by far in that unit, as most of the others had seen active service in the First World War and were mostly in their early 40s."

"Our role in and around London would have been to engage German Parachute troops. Had they landed we would have given a good account of ourselves."

The situation in Dorset was quite different. Evidence uncovered since the war shows that a major German force would have landed in the Lyme Regis area and then pushed inland.

"Pillboxes covered our beaches and further inland Stay Behind Units were formed with orders to attack and sabotage. We had one such team in Beaminster. So, although we might have lost in the end, I believe we would have given a good account of ourselves."

Sir James said it was against this background that he was delighted when the BBC asked him and others to remember those stirring times in a programme called "Reel History of Britain". It is to be shown on September 12th on BBC2 at 6.30pm.

Sir James Spicer is the author of "Jim's Journey".

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

WHICH do you prefer to be - the visitor or the host? This story is from Maggie Dunn, a 'View' reader from Sherborne.

KEEPING LOVE ALIVE AND WARM

We visited a friend last year.

His pretty cottage old.

He stood and grinned and let us in

"I hope you like the cold!"

Our dear friend Tom then showed us round,

Our breath hung in the air.

"Let's take our tea outside," he said

"It's much warmer out there."

The sunny garden thawed us out.

Tom took off gloves and scarf.

"I dress and undress all the time."

He murmured with a laugh.

"Til Rosie left I had it all.

At first she used to tease;

Then one day up and left me, said,

"I'll go before I freeze."

We urged our friend to search for Rose,

'Twas all we could advise

Months passed and then a card arrived

From Tom - a nice surprise.

The message came from Tom and Rose:

Our frozen hands and feet

Have thawed out now we're basking in

The lovely Spanish heat."

The ancient watermill in Lyme Regis has been lovingly rescued from dereliction by local volunteers. Not every mill is so lucky. Local poet Margery Forester tells us a sadder story in this poem, which is featured in the "Dancing with Stones" anthology.

THE WATERMILL

All the old men are gone who could recall
The day the miller ground his last sacks of flour,
And how the horse leant forward in its traces
To pull the loaded cart beneath the arch
Bracing the granary floor.

How Jan the waggoner shook the reins and said
'Cobbler, lad, us won't come here no more.'

The floors have fallen. Their fissured walls
Are buttressed by nettle roots and suckering ash.
Even the sign: 'Danger. No trespassers'
Has crashed among the grasses.

Goats, tethered where the swallows have invaded,
Protest in panicked bleats whenever
Another degraded roof tile slithers down
To shatter in the weedy yard
In sun-dried apricot shards.

Only a forlorn window breaches
The place where once the millstones
Clenched the corn in rough embraces.

Yet up there at the valley head when rain has filled
The leat, the race begins again to trace its bed,
Tumbling replete downhill, and the old waterwheel,
Still stalwart against the granite wall,
Creaks slowly into life.

Then its ractety rhythm wakens the night -

*Rank loosestrife clogs the banks of its stream
And its paddles are cracked and greening,
But it turns again to its meaningless chore,
Though miller and carter and willing horse
Take their part in its task no more.*

Forty years ago scientists were telling us we were heading into a new ice age. Thirty years later many were telling us the opposite. And that soon we may be eating grapes from Greenland. Whichever way it goes, here is some food for thought from the famous American poet, Robert Frost.

FIRE AND ICE

Some say the world will end in fire,
Some say in ice.

From what I've tasted of desire

I hold with those who favor fire,

But if I had to perish twice,

I think I know enough of hate

To say that for destruction ice

Is also great

And would suffice.

BAND'S ROUSING END TO SUMMER SEASON

THE strains of 'Land of Hope and Glory' echoed across the Marine Parade last week, marking the end of a very successful season of summer concerts for Lyme Regis Town Band, a season which had begun early in July with the opening of the refurbished shelters.

As ever, a large and appreciative crowd provided strong support, particularly enjoying the regular children's spot, when youngsters are invited to come forward and join the band in playing a wide range of percussion instruments. For this final concert, Musical Director John Powell chose 'Is this the way to Amarillo?' and led his young volunteers on a conga to the band's lively accompaniment and the obvious delight of the audience.

Collections during these summer concerts have been very encouraging and will help provide the band with financial security through the winter months. Throughout the series, raffle tickets were sold in aid of band funds, organised by Val Mahoney, and it proved a hit with holidaymakers. The draw took place at the end of the final concert and the lucky prize winners were: 1st prize (£150) Ian Kirk from Alvaston, Derby with ticket number 1259, 2nd prize (£100) Sue May from Crewkerne, ticket number 1291, 3rd prize (£50) Heather Prior from Lyme Regis, ticket number 0951.

John Powell expressed thanks to all who had supported the band throughout the summer concerts. Gifts were presented to regular collectors Steve Mahoney and Ralph Herbert, to Ken and Ann Courtney for selling the raffle tickets and to band member Catherine Voysey, playing in her final concert before concentrating on her A level studies.

Following 'Land of Hope and Glory', the audience were invited to link arms for the singing of 'Auld Lang Syne' bringing the summer season to an appropriate close. Band members now return to regular Tuesday practices and their next concert is at Seaton Town Hall on Friday, October 7th.

The Training Band has continued to rehearse throughout the summer and anyone of any age interested in joining them will be warmly welcomed. There are also vacancies for experienced players and full details of both groups can be found on the band's website.

Japanese myth Urashima Taro tells a story of lust, betrayal and loss

PREPARE to be spellbound by a poetic tale about identity and love, based on a Japanese legend from the earliest Japanese history book called Nihon-Shoki.

In return for saving a turtle, a poor young fisherman, Urashima Taro, is invited by the mysterious and captivating Lady Otohime, to stay in her palace under the sea. Promises of a life of eternal pleasure slowly turn into a nightmare as Urashima Taro's fate unfolds.

Inspired by Japanese aesthetics, 'Urashima Taro' fuses stunning visuals with human size Bunraku-style puppets and Kamishibai - a traditional Japanese form of paper theatre - the origin of Manga. Video projection, shadow play, puppetry and the actor combine to tell this fascinating story of lust, betrayal and loss.

Margie Barbour, Programme Manager said: 'Urashima Taro is a beautiful story and Rouge 28 are known for breathtaking performances. They combine puppetry with other performing art forms such as dance, mask, acting and story telling'.

Urashima Taro is at Bridport Arts Centre on Saturday, September 10th, 7.30pm. Tickets cost £10, £9 members, £8 concessions, to book call the Box Office on 01308 424204.

Wonderful selection of genuine French produce as Le Marche de France returns to Beaminster

LE Marche de France has been invited to come and visit Beaminster again on Sunday, September 11th, and bring a great range of high quality and fresh produce from all regions of France for one day for everyone to enjoy.

There will be a magnificent cheese stall with a truly enormous selection of French cheeses. Bread will be baked onsite, in front of visitors, on the new Bread and Patisserie stall, and the smell of bread, croissants and patisseries should hopefully spread in the whole town centre. The Charcuterie will also be in attendance with wonderful sausages, olives, Turkish delights, smoked ham and Calvados pate. Pure Butter Homemade biscuits, cakes and Ginger bread, Mustards, sauces and, of course, garlic will be on offer as well! For those with a sweet tooth, wonderful natural honeys as well the hugely popular crepes stall will be on display. For those with a small space left, the sweet stall will also be making fresh pralines, almonds and cashews on site.

And for those who like South of France, they will find soaps from Marseille, lavenders, tablecloths from Provence... Oh, La la!

Le Marche de France will be in Beaminster Town Centre on Sunday, September 11th from 9am til 4pm.

Eggardon Kite Festival

THE festival has been held for fifteen glorious years in all kinds of weather: Fair, foul and indifferent but only missing one year because of the threat of foot and mouth. It was originally started by a committee of Powerstock locals to raise money for Powerstock School, Powerstock Hut and the Weir Sports Club. In recent years the festival has expanded and now donates to other charities as well.

Eggardon Hill is an Iron Age hill-fort about four miles east of Bridport in Dorset. Built on chalk upland, it has spectacular views and on a clear day you can see across Lyme Bay to South Devon and Start Point. Around 43AD, the Romans forcibly removed the Iron-age dwellers from Eggardon.

In the 18th century, it was planted with a stand of pines, which are thought to have acted as a navigational aid for the boats belonging to the notorious Dorset smuggler Isaac Gullivor, who lived at Eggardon Farm. Since those days, sheep and cattle have enjoyed the views whilst grazing undisturbed except for the annual visit of the festival goers.

So if you want to see something spectacular this weekend get along to the Eggardon Kite Festival!

On a bicycle to Beijing

SETTING out in May 2000, Chris Smith rode his bicycle 16,500 miles from Worcestershire to Beijing. For thirteen months his lungs and legs powered him into headwinds, across deserts and up to mountain passes (and a wonderfully indomitable, reliable and adaptable source of power they proved to be). He set out with neither accomplice, television crew nor satellite navigation.

How does it feel to trade domestic comfort and security for life as a nomad and to pare one's life down to the bare necessities? What is it like to push at the recognising and seizing opportunities – and about how he wore out three sets of tyres, three chains, two pairs of boots, and fell off the bike six times.

Chris will be signing copies of his acclaimed book, 'Why Don't You Fly?' after the presentation.

For more information about journey, bicycle and author, visit www.cycleUKtoChina.com

The talk at Dorset County Museum, Dorchester, begins at 7.30pm on Thursday, September 29th. Entry is free but a donation of £3.00 is encouraged to cover the costs of the speaker: everyone is welcome.

The record label that brought the likes of the Temptations, Diana Ross and the Supremes, the Four Tops, Stevie Wonder, the Jackson 5, Marvin Gaye, Lionel Richie, Martha Reeves, Smokey Robinson, Mary Wells and the Isley Brothers to the world enjoyed its first number one hit in 1961. Please Mr Postman by the Marvelettes was followed by a phenomenal 56 other Billboard chart toppers.

Motown Records became the world's greatest record label and The Magic of Motown authentically revives the biggest hits of all: Stop in the Name of Love; Signed, Sealed, Delivered; My Guy; What Becomes of the Broken Hearted; I Heard it Through the Grapevine; Endless Love; All Night Long; Heatwave; I'm Coming Out; Why Do Fools Fall in Love; Get Ready; Ain't Too Proud to Beg;

Hemstock festival bigger and better than ever

FOLLOWING the success of Hemstock '07, the team are back, aiming to make Hemstock bigger and better on September 17th.

This festival set on private land within the stunning rolling hills and lush countryside of Dorset is about providing the very best in new, progressive music, local delicacies, comedy and literature.

Hemstock is a non-profit organisation with all proceeds raised going to support Prostate Cancer Research and Mondo Challenge (a charity which focuses on providing schools and educational grants to remote areas of India).

From midday organisers intend to cook up a musical storm on the main stage by fusing eclectic flavours from Electro Swing, Jazz, Hip-Hop, Rock n Roll, Blues, Folk, Roots and Reggae.

As well as musicians and tents there will be stand up comedy, recitals from well known poets and authors infused with scrumptious local foods and cider.

All this take us right up to the grand finale, the headline act, followed by an outstanding fireworks display over the festival site.

This year's headliners are The Correspondents - Mr Bruce and Chucks, pictured below - who collaborate to revamp vintage sounds for the modern ear.

Resuscitating sampled relics with squelchy synths over dusty drum loops they've depicted the trials and errors of Love, Lust and Loss over a foot-tapping toe curling amalgamation of Electro, Drum 'n' Bass, Swing and Boogie Woogie.

Starting out in November 2007, old friends Mr Bruce and Chucks, returned to London after a firm schooling at their respective Universities.

In Leeds, Mr Chuckles had been tinkering with the sounds of Hip Hop, Jazz and Dance music for several years, meanwhile further north in Edinburgh Mr Bruce exerted his vocal dexterity over Drum 'n' Bass, Breaks & Funk.

The unlikely pair cut their teeth at a few parties and decided to cement the live performance relationship in their makeshift recording studio. Since then tracks have been recorded, stages have been stomped and knees have hit nipples.

After their set the party will continue, with DJs dropping some of the most cutting edge sounds around.

Thatched Grade II listed stone barn in the centre of the quiet village of West Stafford

BARTON Barn is a fine C18th thatched Grade II listed STONE BARN in the centre of a quiet Dorset village in the heart of Hardy country.

Following extensive restoration, this historic barn provides a stunning main reception room with galleried master suite and library above, a large, bright kitchen/breakfast room and 4/5 bedrooms, 3 with en suite bathrooms, a family shower room and further separate wc.

Original half-cruck oak beams dominate the ceiling of the vast main hall. The reception rooms are large enough for entertainment on a grand scale and indeed the vendors have hosted a series of classical concerts, operas, barn dances and workshops here.

The Barn sits between secluded cottage gardens in the centre of West Stafford with gated parking for several cars. This pretty village has a 15th century church and a thatched Pub all set in a countryside of water meadows and trout streams. Beautiful country and riverside walks can be enjoyed from the doorstep.

This property is on the market for £549,950.

Sky high insurance creates road safety hazard for young drivers

Road safety charity the IAM is calling on insurance companies to overhaul their systems for calculating prices for young drivers, after finding that a search for car insurance quotes for an average 17 year old driver revealed the cheapest annual premium to be £7,091.38. The top price quoted was just over £9700.

This particular search – made on a popular price comparison site – was for the fictional 'Tom Stevens', with a date of birth of the 03/03/1994. He has held a full licence for one month, and was requesting insurance on a 2007 1.1i Kia Picanto. He lives in the London Borough of Richmond upon Thames and claimed the car would be parked on the road. He has no previous claims or convictions and is in full-time education with a part-time job, and requested cover just for 'social' use.

Once Tom had been driving for a year, his cheapest quote dropped to £2528.55, on an otherwise like-for-like basis.

IAM director of policy and research Neil Greig said: "Young drivers can only learn safer driving by practising it, but huge insurance premiums risk pricing them off the road. The challenge for the government, the insurance industry and road safety experts is how to balance the need for experience with the very real risk that young drivers pose to themselves and other road users.

"When an insurance premium is matching university tuition fees, innovative thinking is needed to reward the safest young drivers or spread the cost in a more manageable way.

"Many young people will need a car to get to work and there are serious implications to the economy of young people who are unable to afford to drive, and to road safety if drivers simply choose to forgo insurance."

Renault on a charge at Ecovelocity with UK show debut of Fluence Z.E Saloon

The first arrivals from Renault's Z.E. family are nearly here and eager buyers and showgoers in general will get the first chance to get up close and even drive the eagerly-awaited fully-electric Fluence Z.E. saloon at a public show for the first time at EcoVelocity, 8th to 11th September at Battersea Power Station.

The stylish five-seater, the UK's most affordable electric car, will be taking pride of place on the French marque's stand with Kangoo Van Z.E. during the four-day eco motoring festival. Renault will be offering test drives around the dedicated show circuit in the shadow of the former power station in two Fluence Z.E. and one Kangoo Van Z.E. There will also be two further Kangooos on static display, with a team of Renault EV specialists on hand to answer any questions about enjoying the cost and eco-living benefits of running electric vehicles.

The Fluence Z.E. is a four-door saloon that goes on sale in the UK during the first half of 2012, priced from only £17,850 on-the-road after the deduction of the £5,000 Plug-In Car Grant. Renault's innovative battery hire model via RCI Financial Services, which for Fluence Z.E. costs from £69.60 per month including VAT (based on 6,000 miles per year and a 3 year agreement), also removes any concerns about battery longevity and replacement cost.

Combining the comfort, safety, style and practicality of a traditional saloon, with the low running costs of an electric vehicle, Fluence Z.E. is sure to be a crowd-pleaser. It also comes well-equipped with 16" alloys, auto lights and wipers, climate control, cruise control, ecoMeter and Carni-nat TomTom smart satellite navigation. Unlike electric cars of old, it's also quiet, smooth and refined to drive, with excellent performance from its 70kW (95hp) motor, with 226Nm torque and a range of up to 115 miles.

Joining Fluence Z.E. will be Renault's Kangoo Van Z.E., the world's first electric van produced by a mass-market manufacturer. The affordable business tool is available in two-seat Kangoo Van and Maxi guise, or five-seat Crew Van, priced from only £16,990 excluding VAT. Monthly battery hire starts at £62 per month based on 9,000 miles per year and a four-year agreement.

Designed for businesses doing every type of collection or delivery journey, whether it be rural, suburban or inner city, it offers the same carrying capacity (ranging from 3 to 3.5m3), payload (650kg) and high standard of comfort as its equivalent internal-combustion-engined versions.

Information on Renault's other two electric vehicles launching next year – the unique two-seat Twizy and chic ZOE supermini, will also be available.

Andy Heiron, Renault UK's Head of Electric Vehicles, said, "Renault is the only manufacturer to offer a full range of affordable electric vehicles. With our first Z.E. due to hit the UK's roads in a matter of weeks, we're delighted to be showing off two of the family at EcoVelocity, so that people can see, touch and drive what we believe is the start of a new era in motoring.

"We're sure that everyone who gets behind the wheel will agree with many motoring journalists and industry experts who have rated the performance, space and lack of noise very highly on both models."

THE CORNER GARAGE

MELPLASH 01308 488238

All makes serviced

VAG Specialists - including Seat, Skoda, Audi & VW

CHRIS David, owner of The Corner Garage, is part of a third generation family owned business which is serving its incredible 75th year, which makes it one of the oldest garages around.

At the Corner garage they believe in doing things the old fashioned way repairing vehicles rather than replacing them - of course where possible! and in particular specialise in the VAG range (VW, Audi, Seat and Skoda), which are small engine and low insurance cars that you will be able to see a selection of on their forecourt.

Not just a garage, they are also the only garage between Bridport and Crewkerne that serves petrol and also one of very few that actually serves you.

With three staff on board they are greatly experienced in repairing old vehicles and spend a lot of their time on rally and race preparation.

Situated opposite the Half Moon pub in Melplash the garage gets a lot of local, reliable trade who use the garage time and time again and have produced many testimonials which you will be able to see on the good garage scheme website of which the Corner Garage are members.

So sure of doing their work the right way they hand out to every customer an Industry standard service form which highlights all work carried out, a good garage scheme survey form for your opinions and because they are a female friendly garage they always tell the client what is wrong and even draw pictures to describe the fault fully.

So if you have a problem with your car, need some petrol or looking to buy a car pop in and see the Corner Garage or call Chris and the team on 01308 488238.

HOUNDS STAGE LATE FIGHT BACK

Netherbury off to a flyer - but at a cost

PREMIER DIVISION

CREWKERNE TOWN 1
SOUTH PETHERTON 1

REIGNING Champions survived a buffeting at Henhayes and, in the end, will have been pleased to head home with a point.

Hosts Crewkerne, back in the top division after one season away, took a 24th minute lead when Jamie Spurdle curled home a free-kick past new Pethy 'keeper Lee Holt.

Holt had a busy afternoon and made three superb one-on-one saves to deny Tigers' substitute Adam Swinnerton.

The point saver came via top-scorer Rich Hebditch who netted his eight of the season 20 minutes from time.

Crewkerne manager Nick Murphy was impressed by his back four of Chris Welsh, Ash Larcombe, Dan Baker and new skipper Lee Banks.

FARWAY UNITED 2 WINSHAM UNITED 4
FARWAY United manager Andy Baily was "Quietly impressed" by newly promoted Winsham United after seeing his side slip to a 4-2 defeat at Eastlee Park.

Tom Stead put the visitors ahead early on only for Dylan Gair to level. Sam Symes restored the Winsham lead but Ernie Stobbs sent the teams into the interval all square at 2-2.

The second-half saw the Somerset side take control "We just didn't play at all, and they just mullered us" said Baily.

Henry Broome netted number three and Stuart Richards made the points safe.

MERRIOTT ROVERS 2 PERRY STREET 1
MERRIOTT Rovers recovered from trailing at the break to earn a first win for new manager Harvey Jennings.

Two goals from Vince Cornish gave Rovers the points.

DIVISION ONE

BEAMINSTER RES 1 SHEPTON BEAU 1

LAST season's top-scorer Josh Hunter opened his account for the new season with the leveler as the two teams promoted from Division Two went head-head at the Memorial Ground.

Kris Hastings gave visitors Shepton Beauchamp the lead on the stroke of half-time only for Hunter to square things up 10 minutes from time.

NETHERBURY 3 ILMINSTER COLTS 0

NETHERBURY'S impressive opening day showing was tempered by a snapped hamstring muscle suffered by stand-in goalkeeper James Sayers.

Sayers was forced off in the 15th minute and now faces a lengthy lay-off thought to be a minimum of two months.

Back to the action and new signing from Bridport Reece Bulman put the Ambers ahead. Ben Brook, back after a spell away from the game, added a second before the break and Tim Hussey rounded off the scoring in the second-half.

DIVISION TWO

CHARD RANGERS 2 PYMORE 1

PYMORE paid the price for failing to convert a host of chances at Jocelyn Park.

"We should have been six up at half-time, and must have struck the woodwork at least four times in all" said manager Matt Tither who was forced to sit the game out with a back strain.

Tither had to content himself with a solitary Chris Good strike before Rangers struck twice to turn the game around.

To sum up a frustrating afternoon for the Dorset side Ian Denty hit the bar with the last kick of the game.

DOWLISH & DONYATT 3 UPLYME 3

MANAGER-for-the-day Gavin Fowler was pleased to leave the Dowlish slope with a point, he said: "I'd have taken that before kick-off, it's never an easy place to play, we also had two players drop out just before we left and only went with 12".

Adam Neale put the Swallows, going down the hill, one up at the interval. Neale pounced on a goal-keeping error to double the lead from an acute angle after the restart.

But dozing Dowlish woke from their slumbers and talented midfielder Lee Mears smashed home a quickfire hat-trick which contained a penalty.

Uplyme centre-back Stuart King picked up a groin injury and was thrown up front as the visitors looked to shore up their back-line. But King, who was having an outstanding game at the back, wasn't finished and he chipped the 'keeper to earn his side a hard-earned point.

DIVISION THREE

WAYTOWN HOUNDS 3 MILLWEY RES 3

A LATE fightback from the Hounds resulted in them rescuing a point after they trailed 3-0 with 20 minutes remaining.

"We were terrible in the first-half, we were two down but it could have been five and there was far too much bickering amongst our players" said manager Mark Hughes.

Words from the boss at the break seemed to sort things out and the team were much improved after the restart.

However Rise bagged a third and a defeat looked on the cards. But a series of corners eventually resulted in Leigh Hansford heading home the Hounds opener.

Substitute Shaun Wheeler, back in a Hounds' shirt after a period away from the game, lobbed the 'keeper for the second as the comeback gathered momentum.

Five minutes from time ex-Beaminster striker Tom Menaldino nodded home the pointsaver after his initial shot had been deflected.

Hughes selected Paul Watkins as his star performer closely followed by fellow midfielder Dan Dunford.

DIVISION FOUR

UPLYME RES 4 CHARD RANGERS 3

AN injury to Rangers' Jake Miller cast a slight shadow over Uplyme Reserves' victorious return to the League.

Miller sustained an ankle injury seven minutes from time which required an ambulance. Although enough time had been played for the result to stand Rangers wanted to carry on and try to snatch a point as the score stood at 4-3.

Earlier, an even first 45 saw the teams 2-2 at half-time before The Swallows edged home with goals coming from Will Francis (2), Jamie Jones and Nick Bown.

INJURED: Netherbury stalwart James Sayers faces a lengthy spell of the sidelines.

DOUBLE: Will Francis scored twice as Uplyme Reserves marked their return to the league with a 4-3 victory.

ON TARGET: Leigh Hansford's header sparked the Waytown Hounds fight-back against Millwey Rise Reserves.

Joint manager Andy Cleere selected goalkeeper Rob Prosser and left winger Harry Thresher as his star men.

OTHER NEWS

PORTUGUESE striker Marco Quedas who scored 68 goals in the last two seasons for Luso-Chard marked his debut for Chard United with both goals in a 2-1 win at Hawkchurch.

Jake Bearpark netted with a second-half spot-kick for the Hawks.

Division One title-favourites Millwey Rise battled back from 1-0 down to win 4-2 at Norton. Terry Emmett, Matt Hall, Ashley Phillips and an own goal made up the Devonians quartet.

Crewkerne Rangers were the day's top-scorers with six in the thrashing of Misterton Reserves. Skipper Phil Denslow (3), Simon Denslow (2) and Lloyd Doble bagged the goals.

RUGBY ROUND-UP

WITH KEITH JENKIN

Encouraging signs in friendlies

WITH the League season in both the Dorset & Wilts leagues and the Southern Counties (South) Division not commencing until 10th September, most local sides undertook warm-up games of one sort or another on Saturday.

Although the results of these encounters certainly cannot act as a guide to the clubs' subsequent fortunes, the games themselves are generally of considerable value.

Most local clubs have been satisfied with both the turnout and the fitness levels of those involved and a general air of optimism pervades locally.

DORCHESTER would certainly have been satisfied with their narrow win at TIVERTON; while BRIDPORT would have found crumbs of comfort with the way their young contingent put their hands up in their game at BLANDFORD. WEYMOUTH too would have been pleased to see that their eight is still firing on all cylinders after taking on a SWANAGE & WAREHAM side.

PUDDLTOWN'S season does not start until the seventeenth of September and they have arranged a game against WEYMOUTH 2nd who are in a similar position.

PREVIEW

The newly relegated BRIDPORT first side commence their Dorset & Wilts League Division One (South) campaign with something of an acid test.

They visit the newly promoted ELLINGHAM & RINGWOOD, one of their longer journeys and will certainly come up against a side that is "up for it".

It may well be that the home side will struggle to compete at what is for them, a higher level; but I would not rely on that surmise.

Bridport have not travelled too well in recent times. If they can rectify that failing, then they should return with a win.

DORCHESTER start their season at home, with OAKMEADIANS their opponents. The visitors have been something of a mixed bag in recent times and, while I expect a home win, it may well be a close contest.

WEYMOUTH'S first game is on the road, at BOURNEMOUTH 3rd. I remember watching the game at Weymouth last season when the visitors were a young side who ran about a lot and scored a couple of good tries.

They were eventually subdued by the strength of the Weymouth eight however, and were starved of possession for much of a game that the home side won with some ease eventually.

I feel that the Weymouth pack may well prove to be the deciding factor once again.

The lower Dorset & Wilts divisions do not begin their respective campaigns until the following Saturday, although Puddletown do have a friendly game against Weymouth seconds as something of a warm up.

FIXTURES September 10th: Bridport v Ellingham & Ringwood (away); Bridport 2nd v no game; Chard v Old Centralians (away); Chard 2nd v Cheddar Valley (home); Chard 3rd v No Game; Crewkerne v Ivel Barbarians 2nd (away); Dorchester v Oakmeadians (home); Dorchester 2nd v no game; Dorchester 3rd v no game; Honiton v Totnes (away); Honiton 2nd v Exeter Saracens 2nd (away); Puddletown v Weymouth 2nd (home); Sidmouth v Wadebridge Camels (away); Sidmouth 2nd v Crediton 2nd (home); Sidmouth 3rd v Crediton 3rd (away); Sidmouth Colts v Crediton Colts (home); Weymouth v Bournemouth 3rd (away); Weymouth 2nd v Puddletown (away); Weymouth 3rd v no game.

MOTOR RACING FROM WISCOMBE PARK

Double tops for Lillington, Blake and Thorne

TWO days of championship hill climbing saw a number of drivers net double victories at Wiscombe Park.

Chard's Stewart Lillington exhibited good pace during the Saturday meeting but when he left the track and deposited his two-litre Vauxhall Astra amongst the rhododendrons all might have been lost with his father Phil destined to take the win.

Fortunately for the electronics engineer there was no serious and lasting damage which allowed the combination to take a second and decisive run. Lillington junior quickly dismissed the incident and focussed on a second ascent of the 900 metre track in a time of 43.40 seconds to edge his father into second place by over one second.

The following day the margin of victory was just under one second over the Peugeot 205 GTi driven by Ian Joyce.

Others to take a brace of wins were Geoff Blake form Weymouth and Frampton's Rodney Thorne.

The former was dominant in the over 1800cc division of the Modified Specialist Production Car category in the two-litre Westfield SEi he shares with his father, Graham. Recent significant improvements to the engine left the duo quietly confident of a good performance. Blake junior did not disappoint.

The first meeting of the weekend saw Geoff claim the win over his father and mentor by over one and a half seconds.

The next day, following overnight rain, the track dried sufficiently for Blake the younger to take another victory with a climb of 41.77 seconds which represented a Personal Best on the east Devon course.

Engine maladies with the Judd engine of the Pilbeam MP58 single-seater brought about the decision from Rod Thorne to withdraw the car and 'take the dust sheet off' and substitute his MP43 sports racer which he and Colin Pook campaigned last season.

The duo soon became re-acquainted with the power delivery of the 5.0 litre Rover V8 motor and Thorne forged to the head of the Sports Libre class in front of the highly modified Sylva Striker of Doug Bennett.

The next day Bennett was again the Frampton garage proprietors nearest challenger but with warmer conditions and more heat in the track Thorne took the class on a time of 38.71 seconds to defeat Bennett by 1.69 seconds.

CLASSIC: Lyme Regis driver Craig Moore in his Ford Cortina Mk2.

Car class during the two events his determined driving ensured that he performed well against the class bogie time to amass sufficient points in the Bridge Tyres and Wheels Wiscombe Park championship.

This saw the motor technician elevated from third position, prior to the final two events in the series, to a provisional first.

This coming weekend (September 10/11) sees the final events in the Wiscombe season with the South West area of the M.G. Car Club attracting an eclectic selection of vehicles over and above the M.G. marque on the Saturday and the National Hill Climb Association with an array of motorcycles including solos, trikes and sidecars the following day.

CAPTAINS AWAY WEEKEND

AS his year as Club Captain draws to a close Ray Farrell invited 40 club members and golfers from elsewhere to join him for an away weekend at the Vale golf resort in Mid-Glamorgan.

Set in beautiful parkland the resort boasts two magnificent golf courses. On the Saturday the venue was the challenging Lakes course which, as its name suggests, boasts a significant amount of water surrounding and running across the course.

After an evening spent celebrating the successes of the days event the group reconvened to take on the Welsh National course.

The length of this course is it's main feature but it also boasts a significant amount of water and bunkers strategically placed to catch the unwary golfer or wayward shot. On both days the players all found the courses challenging - much more so than home at Lyme Regis.

BOB BUCKLER RACING

Floods put paid to Ballygulleen's chances

TORRENTIAL rain with flooded roads around parts of Chichester greeted Bob Buckler's team when they arrived at Fontwell Park on Sunday.

The additional water on top of a watered course made the conditions impossible for Ballygulleen looking for another race in his comeback after a serious back injury in the 3¼ mile FSB Data Services Handicap Chase.

Despite making a couple of jumping errors he tired ½ mile from home in the very heavy conditions and finished a remote fourth.

Buckler said: "Having had no inkling of the weather conditions until we arrived, it was decided to race him, but the ground was completely not to his liking.

"He likes good, fast ground and whilst he kept in touch for a while he quite expectedly tired towards the finish."

Wessex league spot confirmed

by Brian Baker.

BRIDPORT'S Mens Indoor bowling team now have it confirmed they will again be in the coastal region of the prestigious Warners Wessex League, starting in October with several hundred pounds worth of prize money at stake.

The league attracts many of the country's top bowlers and Bridport are very much amongst the minnows against the likes of Dorchester, Moonfleet 2000 (Weymouth), Dolphin (Poole) Bournemouth and East Dorset (Christchurch).

But new Captain Brian Rumble is confident Bridport can compete well.

Evening League

BERNARD Waterman, Brian Baker and Neil Stevenson-Guy's Suzuki's poor run looked like continuing in the evening league as they trailed 2.7 against Tony Sharood, Brian Cattell and Andy Marsh's Enfield. Enfield failed to score over the remaining 10 ends though as the amazing Waterman, who played competitive soccer into his 50s, hittop form to lead Suzuki to a 21.7 win. Reg Dodds, Pat Geary and Ken Enticott's A.J.S. blitzed Ducati 25.6.

Champions-elect Roy Gill, Liz Walker and Ivor Parker's Yamaha just hung on to beat Ann Harris, Hugh Rees and Tony Symes, after Norton finished 1.3.2. Sue Caen, Brian Morgan and Edna Cumberland's Triumph and Sue and Brian Walsh and Tony Harrison 20.8, 18.9 up against Honda and Harley's respectively. Morning League - no fixtures played this week.

LYME REGIS BOWLS CLUB - FINALS WEEKEND

WITH PAUL MOFFITT

Fine conditions for finals weekend

SATURDAY and Sunday saw the finals of the all the Club competitions, luckily completed in fine conditions but at times the elements were more conducive to sailing or kite flying. More of these finals later but firstly two league and one friendly to report.

The Ladies gained a very useful eight points at home to Blandford which helps to keep them clear of any relegation worries. The Mens 'A' team managed to secure six points against strong competition from Dorchester 'A'. Despite losing on two rinks, a fine win from Max Thorne's rink enabled them to scrape home by a single shot.

The friendly against Budleigh Salterton, which was played away, resulted in a win for Lyme by three shots. This means that Lyme keep the trophy for the time being, but the return match in a fortnight might well see the trophy heading back to Budleigh.

Results:

Dorset Ladies' Division One.

Lyme 62; Blandford 52.

J Moffitt, M Gillett, J Parsons, K Clissold 25-10; V Cozens, J Perry, J Kesterton, A Allman 18-24; H Dowling, ■ LADY CHAMP: Val Cozens lifted the Ladies Championship trophy after beating Ann Allman 21-13.

D Courtenay-Smith, N Stephens, C Barber 19-18.

West Dorset Men Division One.

Lyme 'A' 58; Dorchester 'A' 57.

M Knight, G Clode, D Pomeroy, B Parsons 13-16; G Broom, P Stephens, J Beadsley, M Thorne 27-11; J Irwin, J Moseley, D Perry, J Wells 18-30.

Friendly:

LYME 96; BUDLEIGH SALTERTON 93.

T Payne, C Clissold, T Poyner, E Skeemer 23-15; S Cox, J Moffitt, R Moody, Chas Barber 26-16; J Brown, K Gardiner, J Kesterton, P Moffitt 21-12; S Wood, R Carnan, R Edwards, K Clissold 11-22; Y Moody, A Brown, D Wood, Chris Barber 15-27.

Finals Day Results:

Due to the withdrawal of Clare Barber from two finals the following titles were won by walkovers: Angela Rattenbury took the Ladies 2 Wood title & the Ladies Handicap Singles title went to Nola Stephens.

Both ladies had overcome strong opposition in order to reach their respective finals and thoroughly deserve their wins.

Mens 3 Set Singles:

Paul Pomeroy overcame Peter Eagles by three sets to 0; 7-5; 9-3; 7-3. This score line does not reflect the immense battle which Peter gave Paul in this match.

The first set could have gone either way, and it is probably true to say that if Peter's opponent had been anyone other than Paul he may well have prevailed.

Mens 4 Wood Drawn Pairs:

STEVE POMEROY & GEOFF COZENS 29; CHARLIE BARBER & REG WINTERBORNE 18. Some inspired back end bowling from Geoff Cozens was undoubtedly a big influence on this game.

Ladies 4 Wood Drawn Pairs:

ANN ALLMAN & VAL COZENS 22; JUDITH MOFFITT & LESLEY BROOM 12. The match up front was a pretty even contest between Judith & Val, but on the day Ann out-bowled Lesley at the back.

Mens 2 Wood Singles:

GEOFF CLODE 16; JOHN EATON 13. One of the few occasions that we have not seen Paul Pomeroy contesting this final, having won it eight times in the last 11 years.

Perhaps not so much Geoff winning but more a case of John losing this game. The game tied at 19 ends, Geoff picked up a single on the 20th end to lead John by a single shot going in to the last end.

Given every chance to snatch a win John failed to take his chances and gifted two more shots to Geoff in a game which really could have gone either way, given how nervous both these players were going into this final.

Ladies Invitation:

JAN PARSONS & PAUL MOFFITT 22; DIANA COURTENAY-SMITH & CHARLIE BARBER 10. Jan & Paul took their chances against strong opposition and in the end won quite comfortably.

The 'Rocky':

BOB TURPIN 23; REG WINTERBORNE 14. Bob has now won this title for two years on the trot. Reg, who has been bowling very consistently, didn't seem to have the answer to Bob's nagging consistency and finally capitulated in this competition - which is only open to men who have reached the tender age of 70!

Married Couples:

ANN & TREVOR ALLMAN 32; SUE & DAVE WOOD 11. Often referred to as the 'Divorce Stakes', this competition tests the mettle of blissfully married couples to keep their calm.

On the day Ann and Trevor proved too strong for Sue and Dave on what looked like quite tricky conditions.

2 Wood Mixed Drawn Pairs:

REG WINTERBORNE & ERIC SKEEMER 25; JAN PARSONS AND GEOFF CLODE 7. A win at the third attempt for Reg who, with partner Eric, showed no mercy in their comfortable defeat of Jan and Geoff.

Fillies:

LESLEY BROOM 21; JAN PARSONS 20. This one went down to the wire with Jan leading by a single shot at 20-19 and having the mat. Somewhat prophetically, Jan shook hands with Lesley before the start of this end although, in reality, there could still be two ends to play.

Lesley put her first two woods on the jack limiting Jan to a weighted shot to have any chance of a result. Despite a gallant effort from Jan, Lesley hung on to her two shots to pick up the title by the narrowest margin possible.

Men's Handicapped Singles:

PAUL POMEROY 23; BARRY RATTENBURY 13. This was always going to be a battle, Skip Paul playing his number 3 Barry from the Championship League.

For many ends this was a tied battle with no indication where the trophy might be heading. One small lack of concentration from Barry and he's dropped a four! You don't play Paul and drop a four and live to tell the tale.

Paul saw his chance and gained in confidence with every end wrapping up what in the end was a comfortable win.

Ladies Championship Singles:

VAL COZENS 21; ANN ALLMAN 13. With new woods, which she hates, Val is transformed this season. She showed no mercy as she cruised to a 20-10 lead over

Ann, but as so often is the case that last point didn't come easily. Ann picked up a two, then a single and seemed to be getting the upper hand.

But Val kept her nerve and picked up the single she needed to make her Ladies Singles Champion, a title she has held in the past but not for a long time. Just goes to show you write anyone off at your peril.

Mens Championship Singles:

CHARLIE BARBER 21; DON MEYLAN 14. This was another skip v number three confrontation and, again, it was the skip who prevailed.

Charlie quickly slotted into his drawing game and for a while Don did not 'turn up' for this encounter. Charlie started to gain a comfortable lead whilst Don found it difficult to find either line or length, even his weighted shots were letting him down.

He then found some resolve and got back to within two shots of Charlie, at which point I'm wondering if Charlie was thinking 'here we go again!'

Charlie stuck to his guns and his drawing game, his undoubted forte, and went on to take the title with some ease. I trust I didn't jeopardise Don's chances by stating a few weeks ago that he was going to be hard to beat. Sorry Don!

We owe a debt of gratitude to those who gave up their time to man the kitchen and the bar.

As I write this I am looking out the window at pouring rain. The competitions finished less than 2 hours ago, weren't we lucky.

I trust the account of these matches is fairly accurate, it's difficult to watch four games at once so a lot of info comes second-hand. I even got to play in one final myself, when I would like to think the only game I was watching was my o

FA cup exit for Bees after defensive errors

Watkins double gives Magpies the blues

SUTTON UNITED 3 DORCHESTER TOWN 1 (ATT: 645)

DORCHESTER Town suffered their fourth Blue Square South defeat of the season after taking a first-half lead at Gander Green Lane on Saturday.

Although Sutton United equalised almost immediately they looked set for a point before a double substitution by the U's early in the second-half turned the game.

Dorchester welcomed back Gary Bowles to the side following a five match suspension. The defender, now an AFC player on-loan following his recent transfer, replaced Mark Jermyn alongside Nathan Walker in the centre of defence, allowing the skipper to resume his normal midfield duties.

Dorchester buoyed by the win at Truro on Bank Holiday Monday were positive from the start and Ben Dickenson should have perhaps scored his first competitive goal for the club in the ninth minute when he headed a cross from Nick Crittenden, restored to the team, over the bar when well placed. Ashley Nichols then fired over the top, before the Magpies took a deserved lead when Kyle Critchell reacted first to turn Chris Flood's low corner in at the near post, after U's gloveman Kevin Scriven had pushed Crittenden's shot behind.

Unfortunately Dorchester were unable to hold on to their lead, as four minutes later the game was level with a gift of a goal; Alan Bray taking the opportunity to head home after Dorchester's defence was slow to react to a ball that hung in the air from a deflection.

Ryan Moss almost restored the visitor's advantage just before the break, but Scriven produced a superb save to tip his glancing header over the crossbar.

The game changed however with the injection of pace into the U's forward line with the introduction of substitutes Romone McCrae and Craig Watkins on 56 minutes. Within seconds McCrae set up what should have been a goal for Tony Taggart, but soon after Sutton took the lead when Watkins timed his run perfectly to Bray's through pass to outrun the Magpies defenders and race clear before shooting past the advancing Evans.

Scriven denied Moss a second time with another fantastic save as Dorchester went looking for the equaliser.

Gleeson replaced Flood and with 13 minutes left manager Ashley Vickers resorted to a back three, replacing Bowles with Ryan Dovell, but with the visitors committed, the speed of Watkins proved vital with five minutes remaining.

Nichols lost out in a tackle to Anthony Riviere and the ball broke for Watkins who again showed the Dorchester defence a clean pair of heels to race on and slot the ball in the corner of Simon Evans' net.

Subdued Terras miss chance

WEYMOUTH 2 EVESHAM UNITED 2 (ATT: 446)

WEYMOUTH produced an inept display as they fought out a tepid draw with fellow strugglers Evesham United at The Bob Lucas Stadium on Saturday, all of the goals the result of error or poor defending.

After falling behind, they fought back to lead by the break, but in a second half dominated by the visitors they conceded a equalising goal and missed out on the chance of three valuable points.

Manager Brendon King was dealt a blow just before kick off when Ron Wollaston had to be replaced by Richard Marshallsay.

The former Chelsea midfielder had been ill overnight with sickness and diarrhoea and after taking part in the warm up decided to withdraw.

King included Mark Peters, the 39-year-old former St Albans player/assistant manager who joined the Terras on non-contract terms on Friday; the defender playing alongside captain Ben Gerring and Sam Poole in a 3-5-2 formation.

Neither side appeared able to put two passes together in the opening minutes and it was perhaps synonymous of the game that it was an awful blunder by Stephen Reed that saw the first goalmouth action and gifted the visitors their first goal on 16 minutes.

Josh Quaynor was rightly penalised for a foul close to the corner flag on the right side of goal and duly formed the one-man wall to block Reed's proposed inswinging left foot kick. Although the Robin's player was not stood the full 10-yards from the ball, Reed's kick never really got off the ground and struck Quaynor on the shoulder.

He reacted quickest and played a diagonal ball into the centre circle where Kevin Spencer was too quick for Peters and poked the ball past him. The tall midfielder then drove down the right wing before cutting the ball across the goalmouth from the byeline to give Marcus Palmer the easiest of tap-ins at the far post.

Three minutes later the Terras could have been two down when left wing back Jamie Hyde in acres of space ran to the byeline before cutting the ball back for Palmer, but he couldn't get enough on it and gave Nick Jordan an easy save.

Poole was book for a clumsy tackle on Spencer on the half hour, before the Weymouth defence were caught out by a ball played through the middle a minute later. The whole home defence including Jordan, who stood rooted on his 6-yard-line, appealed for offside as Palmer ran on unopposed but fortunately the striker somehow poked his shot just the wrong side of the right hand post.

Weymouth equalised on 34 minutes with what was also their first foray on goal. Warren Byerley who had a quiet game by his standards flicked on a ball to Marshallsay whose 16-yard volley was brilliantly beaten away by Robins keeper Dave Adey for a corner.

A defender headed Reed's corner away to the angle of the penalty box where Spencer inexplicably barged into the back of Gerring as he went to recover the ball to concede a penalty. Byerley despatched the spot kick with aplomb.

This lifted the Terras and two minutes later they took the lead following another corner, conceded when Matt Groves attempted cross rebounded off Andy Jones' face. This time Marshallsay rose at the far post to head home powerfully from close-in.

A minute before the break Marshallsay was booked for a late tackle, and as the teams left the field both Robins skipper Wayne Daniel and Spencer were booked by referee Andrew Turner, the latter it would appear complaining about the penalty decision.

Evesham despite being a poor side themselves came out with a bit more purpose after the interval, and they should have equalised seven minutes in when the Weymouth defence failed to pick up Spencer as he ran unchallenged to meet Simon Fitter's free kick from the left touchline. Fortunately he failed to get a touch on what was a free header at goal from six-yards.

However four minutes later they did not miss with another gift; the unmarked Jones thundering home a header from Fitter's corner kick from close range to square the scores.

Soon after Byerley jinked his way to the byeline but his drink was just too high for the inrushing Groves and Marshallsay.

The equaliser had lifted Evesham though, and they began running the show after this, and had enough chances to have taken all three points as Weymouth wilted.

Daniel had a header blocked on the line from Fitter's corner, and another of his flag kicks passed right across the goal with no one on hand to get the vital touch, before Jordan produced a top drawer save, blocking Craig Wilding's effort from close range after Quaynor had been allowed to run in the box and set him up.

The last ten minutes saw both sides withdraw and hang on to their point. Weymouth will be thankful to have held on to one, whilst Evesham will have realised despite their second half superiority it was a good point away from home against a fellow struggler.

This really was a game that Weymouth could and need to win if they are to make progress up the table.

A minute's applause was held before the match as a mark of respect for Spencer Bates, a follower of the Terras who sadly passed away on Wednesday. Spencer raised over £40,000 in aid of Motor-Neurone Disease. His eight-year-old son Samuel bravely acted as mascot for the game and joined the applause in memory of his father.

Bees blitzed at Wells

WELLS CITY 6 BRIDPORT 2 (ATT: 115)

BRIDPORT tumbled to their second Toolstation Western League Premier Division defeat of the season when Wells City hit them for six, although the loss was not as bad as the score suggests.

The Bees went in level at the break having twice taken the lead, before the hosts cracked home four without reply in the second-half.

In an exciting first-half where both sets of forwards were on top, Bridport took the lead when Sam Charles pounced to score after the home keeper Owen Dunn could not hold Tom Richardson's shot from the edge of the box.

Steve Murray equalised five minutes later, before Russell Legg put a good ball in behind the full-back and Richardson set up Sam Charles for his second. Ross McErlain restored parity just before the break with a chip into the top corner of Jamie Fry's goal.

Senior would have been pleased with his sides performance but would have been looking for his charges to keep a tight ship after the break, but Adam Jones ruined their plan within a minute; turning sharply in the box and firing home after Legg had blocked a cross.

Murray added a fourth and his second with a shot from an acute angle, before sub Jamie Gowers collected the ball on the edge of the box to beat Fry with a powerful shot. Murray completed the rout from the penalty spot after Shane Evans had fouled the striker.

FA Cup exit as Bees gift goals

HORNEDEAN 3 BRIDPORT 1 (ATT: 100)

BRIDPORT crashed out of the FA Cup at the Preliminary Qualifying Round after gifting their Wessex League Premier opponents all three goals. Despite creating a number of good goalscoring opportunities at Five Head Park, Bridport failed to take them, and paid the penalty.

■ CLOSE: Weymouth skipper Ben Gerring just misses out watched by Warren Byerley (10) and Matt Groves as Evesham United captain Wayne Daniels heads a corner clear. Photo by STUART BROOM.

Playing up the slope in the first-half, Bridport had a scare on five minutes when Horndean skipper Tom Chapman's looping header struck the far post, but two minutes later they fell behind when Chris Senior missed the ball in trying head Horndean keeper Simon Howard's punt back to his 'keeper Jamie Fry.

This allowed Gary Austin to run in behind and beat Fry with a vicious shot.

Senior almost made amends when his goalbound shot was deflected for a corner before Fry saved well from Austin.

Nathan Paxton doubled the hosts lead just before the half hour when he intercepted Adam Symes' under hit back pass to shoot past Fry.

Bridport finally picked up their game and Shane Evans brought them back into the game with a fine goal; drilling a chest high volley from Dan Wise's corner through a crowded goalmouth from the edge of the box.

Brian McKie almost restored the hosts two goal advantage when he hit the post before Howard had to save Matt Condliffe's shot with his feet after the wingback had cut into the box.

Playing down the slope after the break Bridport enjoyed a 15 minute spell of supremacy, but Horndean packed their defence and although Senior and Darren Watts went close, Bridport in the main had to rely on long range efforts.

Horndean knew how to play the sloping pitch and were dangerous on the break; Fry having to produce a good save to turn Austin's deflected shot away for a corner.

Trevor Senior gambled by switching to a back three and sending son Chris forward in an attempt to get an equaliser, and Wise came close when Howard did well to tip his swerving 25-yard shot over the bar.

It was the unfortunate Wise who made the error that put the game beyond Bridport in the final minutes. Caught in two minds to clear the ball or play it, he slipped, and McKie took advantage to race through and beat Fry with aplomb.

Bees get revenge in 13 goal thriller

BRIDPORT RESERVES 8 HOLT UNITED 5

BRIDPORT reserves gained revenge for their recent league defeat by Holt United and inflict the East Dorset side's first loss of the season.

Joint manager Steve Crabb was disappointed that his side had lost 3-1 in the league meeting three weeks earlier which he felt the Bees should have won, and so was understandably pleased with this Magna Dorset Premier League Cup result.

"The score suggests that it was much closer than it was and that both defences were poor; that's not strictly true. We were leading 8-2 with 15 minutes to go, but having used our one sub and with Dan Peart and Jamie Morgan both carrying injuries they came back to score three times in the last 10 minutes which is disappointing and is an unfair reflection of how much better we were than them."

It was a good day for the Clarke brothers, with Ben notching a hat-trick and Ash grabbing a brace as Bridport cruised into a three goal lead inside the first-half with Darren Lock's goal sandwiched between one each from the brothers.

The visitors reduced the arrears just before the break.

Crabb added: "We hadn't played particularly well in the first half but still had a good lead, but we picked it up in the second half and played really well."

Ben Clarke completed his hat-trick with two quick goals soon after the restart before both sides swapped penalties with Ash Clarke converting for Bridport to make the score 6-2.

Tristan Gale and Morgan then got on the score sheet before Holt's late flurry whose scorers were Dave Perry (3) and Peter Richmond-Cole (2).

The win completed a good eight days for the Bees who followed up their league win over Blandford United with a creditable 3-1 victory over Weymouth Reserves at St Mary's Field.

BRIDPORT RESERVES 3 WEYMOUTH RESERVES 1

MANAGER Steve Crabb was pleased with his team's performance over a slightly strengthened Weymouth side.

After a goalless first-half Adam Steele put Bridport ahead after good work by Tristan Gale had set him up, but Simon Crouch levelled the scores for Weymouth with a volley.

However it was sub Jamie Morgan, making a comeback to football after a couple of season out, who clinched the points for Bridport with a brace.

Crabb said: "It was a good team performance but Tristan was outstanding, setting up two of the goals by getting around the back of the defence, and Sam Day was also in excellent form."

"It was good to see Jamie score as well. He is getting back to fitness after being out for a couple of seasons, and once fit will be one to watch."

A DELUGE of runs including a league record partnership failed complete Uplyme & Lyme Regis 1st XI's late charge towards promotion from the Devon League Division E.

Saturday's game at Kilminster saw 534 runs scored for the loss of just two wickets all day.

Uplyme loss the toss and were asked to bat first on what soon turned out to be the flattest of flat tracks.

Mark Batey (15) and Rob Thom put on 44 for the opening wicket before Batey was replaced by brother Steve.

The new pairing then proceeded to eclipse the two year old Divisional record for the second wicket of 183 which had stood for two years.

Thom went on to score his first hundred in first team colours finishing unbeaten on 114. Batey was also there at the end on 111 as skipper Ashley Caddy declared giving his side an extra eight overs in which to try and dismiss the hosts which would have resulted in a maximum 20 points haul.

By HOWARD LARCOMBE

But there ended the entertainment for the day as the Kilminster batsmen inexplicitly refused to even entertain a run-chase and stone-walled at every opportunity.

Caddy used 10 bowlers including vice-captain Derek Wellman who lobbed up some juicy waist-high full-tosses to attempt to entice the Kilminster batsmen to attack.

But to no avail as they finished on 163 for 1.

As is was, rivals Honiton secured the win which, in end, left the Uplyme result counting for nothing.
